

Mutual Respect

- Our PSHCE programme includes the teaching of British Values, such as mutual respect.
- Our School Council Anti-bullying Ambassadors encourage mutual respect.
- Our school rules include - 'We will respect each other.'
- We actively promote an attitude of equality and fairness.
- Everyone is valued, considered, listened to and respected.

Rillington CP School British Values Statement

Rillington CP School is committed to serving its community.

We actively celebrate and recognise the multi-cultural and multi-faith nature of the United Kingdom.

We understand our crucial role in promoting the following key British Values:

The Rule of Law

- Our School Behaviour Policy is shared with all stakeholders.
- The school has good links with the local Police and PCSO who visit regularly.
- We understand the need to follow the rules when playing games and sport.
- Children have opportunities to reflect on their learning and behavior.

Tolerance

- We encourage tolerance of those with different faiths and beliefs.
- Our Religious Education curriculum provides a broad and balanced coverage of a range of faiths, religions and cultures.
- We celebrate a range of festivals such as Diwali, Easter, Eid, Chinese New Year, and Passover through assemblies and themed days.
- We visit a range of places of worship and arrange visitors to school.
- We support local, national and global charities.

Individual Liberty

- Children have key roles responsibilities throughout the school as School Council members, Digital Leaders, Reading Buddies, and British Values Ambassadors.
- Children are encouraged to make choices within a safe and supportive environment.
- A wide range of extra-curricular activities are available to choose.
- Children's successes are shared and celebrated.

Democracy

- All children are involved in the democratic process by electing the School Council, which meets regularly.
- The school council choose charities to support.
- Children's views are sought via an annual questionnaire.
- Democracy is a highly valued assembly theme.
